Marcus A. Smith Again Their Candidate.

Brady and Baldwin to Try for Joint Councilmen-A Short Platform Adopted.

The Domocratic Territorial Convention met at Patton's Opera House, in this city, at 10:30 a. m., yesterday. The hall was tastefully decorated. Behind the speaker's stand were hung a Frank Czarnowski, W. L. LaBarron, H. large flag and graceful festoons of the harge flag and graceful lestoons of the national colors. On both sides of the platform were vases of flowers, with which the tables were also adorned. From above the stage, surrounded by a wreath of leaves, looked down the wreath of leaves, looked down the faces of Cleveland and Hendricks, order Mr. Hughes said:

Gentlemen of the Convention—It is just ten years ago this very month, and in the same Garden City, that the honor was conferred upon me to call to order the first Territorial Convention ever held in this Territory. (Applause.) That Convention gave us. I believe, as a standard bearer, one of the most honored members of the present Convention, the Hon. G. H. Oury, who carried our party through two campaigns to success; and success has attended our party from that day to this.

Through the absence of the Chairman of the Territorial Central Committee the honor has again fallen upon me of calling your Convention to order, and I hope that the same success for the next ten years will follow us as it has in the past.

Upon assuming the chair, Mr. Edwards spoke as follows:

GENTLEMEN AND FELLOW DEMOCRATS OF THIS CONVENTION—I feel very grateful for the expression of confidence manifested in select-ing me as Temporary Chairman of this convention

Teongratulate you, Fellow Democrats, upon the realty of the Democratle party, and especially here in Arisons, where, for the last quarter of a century it has survived the storm of defeat, and today the grand old Democratte party that has lived for more than fifty years, is stronger than ever (Applease)

has lived for more than lifty years, is stronger than ever. (Applattse.)

I know the Democracy of this Territory. I know what it is composed of: I know the principles that underly the Democratic party, and I know that the men who compose the party in Arizona are true Democrats. They are not Democratis for revenue only, but are Democrats by principle. They are standing up for the grand old principles their forefathers taught them.

What we may do, Fellow Democrats, as the result of this convention, depends a great deal upon your actions, and success will surely be the result of our labors if you act wisely in selecting the men to fill the various positions we have been called together to select.

On motion of Mr. Summers, of Pinal, W. Wood Porter was elected Secretary of the Convention.

P. J. Bolan, of Graham, moved that a Committee consisting of one member from each of the Counties of the Territory be appointed upon Credentials.
M. H. Williams, of Maricopa, moved that the Chair appoint a Committee of seven on Credentials. A Committee of seven on Resolutions and Platform, and a Committee of five on Order of Business and Permanent Organization Here followed some discussion on the motion, with regard to the fact that the County wishing to "hog" everything in Convention had not yet organized, but the origional motion was finally carried. F. G. Hughes, of Pima, moved that the Convention take a recess of five minutes, to enable the Chair to appoint his Committees. The report was adopted. Delegate Oury rose to his feet at this point and entered a protest. His voice was suggestive of a bad cold but his sentiments were sharp. He said that Maricopa County was, very evidently, attempting to gobble everything there was in sight, and that injustice had been done to the other counties of the Territory. He seemed to take especial umbrage to that portion of the committee's report recommending that the temporary organization be made permanent. M. H. Williams responded by saying that he signed the report at the instance and request of the other members of the committee, and that he was surprised at the discourteous remarks of the gentleman from Pinal in relation to Maricopa

H. N. Alexander also desired to con-demn the remarks of Mr. Oury.
